
ANNUAL ESTIMATES OF INDIVIDUALS TO BE SERVED AND COSTS OF SERVICES 4.12(b)

Based on data from the U.S. Bureau of the Census, North Dakota has over 43,000 residents between the ages of 16 & 64 who report a disability and consequently could be eligible for Vocational Rehabilitation services.

It is estimated that during the current federal fiscal year 2006 a total of 6869 individuals will receive Vocational Rehabilitation services. The estimated breakdown is 6619 individuals will receive services through Title I and 250 individuals will receive services through Title VI, Part B.

The estimated annual cost to provide services is $10.4 million.